

Today's Father Radio

Restoring the Hearts of Fathers to Their Children 5 Days a Week

In May 1993, Dr. Ken Canfield and the National Center for Fathering began broadcasting succinct three-minute programs to remind listeners that fathers matter. Currently, a growing list of more than 600 radio stations air the daily show. Today, Today's Father features Carey Casey, the Center's CEO since 2006. (See more about Carey below.) "Thanks for listening, Dad, and keep up the good work!" for LISTENERS

- Transcripts and Audio from Recent Broadcasts

- Stations that play Today's Father (PDF)

for BROADCASTERS

- What People Are Saying About Today's Father

- To help us reach the culture with a message of responsible fatherhood, you can bring Today's Father to your station. Please contact us for more information.

Today's Father Podcast

FREE! Take fathering tips and encouragement with you wherever you go. Listen to broadcasts of Today's Father, our daily 3-minute radio program that challenges dads to "keep up the good work." Click on "listen now" and you'll be taken to our podcast location at iTunes*. There you can subscribe for free and download the audio files to your iPod, cell phone, or MP3 player—or listen on your PC. *iTunes required. download here.

Carey Casey

Carey Casey joined the National Center as CEO after 18 years with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Across the country, Casey has earned a reputation as a dynamic communicator and as a compassionate ambassador, especially within the American sports community. For five years he served as co-pastor at Lawndale Community Church in North Lawndale, Ill., where he helped empower the community with health care, housing, education and economic growth. He has been married 31 years and has four children and two grandchildren.

Ken Canfield, founder of the National Center for Fathering, said: "Carey is exactly the leader NCF needs. Over the past 16 years, we built a solid base of research that underlies the materials, curricula, and other tools we developed for fathers. Carey brings the dynamism, the intellect and the talent to open new doors and get those tools to men who need them."

Read more about Carey.